Get Close To Nature

Properties like this are hard to find (on purpose), this secluded property consists of 100 acres of natural Australian bush. This blissfully uncrowded setting also enjoys a very comfortable cottage featuring huge open living area with polish timber floors, a timber kitchen & bathroom and an outstanding timber deck for relaxing and taking in the sounds of the abundant bird life. This property also boasts a studio with its own bathroom that can be easily converted into a fully self contained granny flat with some internal lining and a lick of paint to complete as well as a machinery workshop. The huge dam has a pump connected for watering the gardens as well as a creek running through the property that feeds into the dam, mains power, phone & internet connected. Make peace with yourself and inspect this property today.
